WEEKLY MENU

DAY 1

Lunch

Calamari fritti with home-made tartar sauce
Grilled prawns with a pepper, tomato and cucumber salad and a lemon dressing

Dinner

A SPECTACULAR SRI LANKAN CURRY FEAST WITH ALL OF THE TRIMMINGS - AN EXPERIENCE TO BEHOLD

MAIN

Chicken, prawn and fish curries with side dishes of cashew nut curry, beetroot curry, pumpkin curry and breadfruit curry, accompanied by popadoms, dahl and white rice, and served with spicy chutneys.

PUDDING

Watalappan with vanilla ice cream

Watalappan is a sweet steamed pudding, made from cardamom spiced coconut custard - it's one of Sri Lanka's most famous desserts.

DAY 2

Lunch

An exquisite lemongrass consommé served with garlic bread and deliciously flavoured chicken, prawn or vegetable wraps, marinated in Roshan's secret recipe

Dinner

WATCH AS CHEF ROSHAN PUTS ON A BRILLIANT SHOW AND PREPARES DINNER IN FRONT OF YOU, CREATING HIS SPECIAL KOTHU WITH FLAVOURS YOU WILL NEVER FORGET

MAIN

Kothu: Chicken, prawn or vegetable

Kothu Roti is a delicious street food descending from the Indian Tamils. The ingredients are thrown on a hot cast-iron griddle lubricated with oil. These are minced and mixed by repeated pounding with heavy iron spatulas, the sound of which is ubiquitous with Sri Lankan kitchens.

PUDDING

Sago pudding served with caramelized cashew nut

Sago is a traditional Sri Lankan pudding made from the spongy centre of palm starch, rolled into tiny balls. It can be cooked in a number of ways. Roshan's speciality is cooking the 'pearls' in creamy coconut milk, adding some kithul jaggery to deepen the flavour and cashews for a nutty bite that melts into your taste buds.

DAY 3

Lunch

Baby chicken marinated in Sri Lankan herbs with sautéed tomatoes and crispy potato wedges

Dinner
